CE 692 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING SEMINAR

SPRING 1990
FRIDAYS, 3:35 PM
MARSTON 220

SCHEDULE

February 2  Introduction, Organization, and Social Hour
February 9  Ms. Diana J. King
            Environmental Engineer, U.S. EPA, Boston
            Subject: Superfund/Hazardous Wastes
February 16 Dr. Alan J. Lutenegger
             Assoc. Professor, Dept. of Civil Engr., UMass
             Subject: Hydraulic Conductivity Measurements
February 23 Professor Thomas C. Young
            Dept. of Civil & Envr. Engr., Clarkson University
            Subject: Acid Rain
March 2    Dr. Brian A. Dempsey
           Asst. Professor, Dept. of Civil Engr., Penn State
           Subject: Polyaluminum Sulfate
March 9    Mr. Stephen L. Bishop
           Senior VP, Metcalf and Eddy, Inc.
           Subject: Pilot Studies on Sudbury Reservoir
March 16   Early Departure for Spring Recess
            NO SEMINAR
March 23   SPRING RECESS
March 30   Dr. Paul L. Busch
           President, Malcolm Pirnie, Inc.
           Subject: Pilot Studies

It is anticipated that seminars in the early part of April will be given by candidates for the faculty position opening in environmental engineering. Graduate students who register for CE 692 will be scheduled for seminars in April or May.
April 13
Ms. Pamela D. Pierce
Graduate Student, Environmental Engineering
Subject: A Rapid Spectrophotometric Method for Trihalomethanes

April 20
No Seminar -- Two speakers on May 11

April 27
Dr. Thomas K. Liu
President, Haley and Aldrich
Subject: Professional Practice Seminar

Joint Seminar with Civil Engr. -- Location and arrangements by Civil Engr.

May 4
Ms. Karin M. Franklin
Graduate Student, Environmental Engineering
Subject: Use of Ozone as an Aid to Coagulation

May 11
Mr. Michael B. Fox
Graduate Student, Environmental Engineering
Subject: A Comparison of Peroxone to Ozone as a Pretreatment for Direct Filtration

Ms. Kelly A. DeFelice
Graduate Student, Environmental Engineering
Subject: An Optimization Model for Selecting Water Main Leak Detection