

CE 692 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING SEMINAR Spring 1994

Professor Michael S. Switzenbaum, Seminar Coordinator

Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering

University of Massachusetts

Amherst, MA 01003 Phone:545-5393

All seminars are held on Friday afternoons at 3:35 PM in Marston 132.

Refreshments will be served after each seminar.

Schedule:

- January 28. Introductory meeting
- February 4 Dr. Robert Lenz, Dept. of Polymer Sci. and Eng., UMass/Amherst
Role of Biodegradable Polymers in Plastic Waste Management
- February 11 Dr. Michael S. Switzenbaum, Dept of Civil and Env Eng., UMass
Obstacles in the Implementation of Anaerobic Treatment Technology
- February 18 Dr. John Neusted, Dept. of Forestry and Wildlife Mgt., UMass/Amherst
Environmental Toxicology as a Tool in Bioremediation
- February 25 Mr. Kevin Sheehan, Environmental Compliance Services, Agawam, MA
Environmental Site Assessment in Massachusetts
- March 4 Mr. Robert Jarnis, CH2M Hill, Boston, MA
Design of a Corrosion Control Facility for the MWRA
- March 11 Dr. Fred Hart, Department of Civil Engineering, WPI
Risk/Benefit of Residential Sprinklers
- March 18 No seminar
- March 25 Spring break
- April 1 Ms. Kathleen Sellers, ENSR, Acton, MA
A Remediation Case Study under the Massachusetts Contingency Plan
- April 8 Dr. Taylor Eighmy, Dept of Civil Engineering, Univ of New Hampshire
Chemical Speciation and Leachate Modeling of Incinerator Residuals
- April 15 Student seminar
- April 22 Dr. James K. Edzwald, Dept of Civil and Env Eng, UMass
Dissolved Air Flotation: Principles and Applications
- April, 29, and May 6 Student seminars