

Environmental Engineering Seminar
Marston 132

DATE	TITLE	SPEAKER
September 10, 1999	Introductory Seminar
September 17, 1999	Hydrogenotrophic Denitrification of Drinking Water Using a Membrane-Bioreactor	Andreas Reuss
September 24, 1999	Best Management Practices for Airport Deicing Stormwater	Mike Switzenbaum
October 1, 1999	Diurnal Ozone Profile in Haifa Israel: Protecting Mount Carmel Project from Ozone Pollution	Tom Naderi, UMass, Lowell
October 8, 1999	No Seminar
October 15, 1999	Hydrology and hydrometeorology of extreme floods in urban environments	Paula Rees
October 22, 1999	TBA	Hanibal Tayeh, Spectrum Analytical
October 29, 1999	Geo Distinguished Lecture (Location and time to be announced)	Jim Mitchell VPI
November 5, 1999	Information Technology and Community Interaction in Watershed Modeling	Timothy Randhir, Natural Res. Conservation, UMass
November 12, 1999	(Bio) Colloid Behavior in Environmental Porous Media: A Sticky Situation	Domenico Grasso, UConn
November 19, 1999		TBA
November 26, 1999	No Seminar – Thanksgiving Break
December 3, 1999		EVE Students
December 10, 1999		EVE Students

Fall 1999

Date	Speaker	Title
October 15	Prof. Paula Rees, Dept. of Civil and Environmental Engineering, UMass	Hydrology and Hydrometeorology of Extreme Floods in Urban Environments
October 22	Prof. Timothy Randhir, Dept. of Natural Resources Conservation, UMass	Information Technology and Community Interaction in Watershed Modeling
November 5	Prof. Domenico Grasso Dept. of Civil and Environmental Engineering, University of Connecticut	(Bio) Colloid Behavior in Environmental Porous Media: A Sticky Situation
November 19	Dr. Hanibal Tayeh Spectrum Analytical, Agawam, MA	Various Total Petroleum Hydrocarbon Methodologies: Accuracy, Efficiency and Fingerprinting
December 3	Prof. Richard Vogel Dept. of Civil and Environmental Engineering, Tufts University	Regional Hydrologic Analysis in the United States

Please post the above Environmental Engineering Seminars. The seminars are held in 132 Marston Hall at 3:30
