ऋषिः मधुच्छन्दा वैश्वामित्रः	छन्दः गायत्री	देवता अग्निः
ṛṣiḥ madhucchandā vaiśvāmitraḥ	chandaḥ gāyatrī	devatā agniḥ

Introduction:

As with our previous works, we hope that the present work is useful to readers who would like to carryout their own interpretation of various classical and vedic sanskrit texts. Agni Suktam is the first hymn in the oldest of the vedas, the Rig Veda and is addressed to Agni, the fire-god, who is considered a cosmic power, who protects and guides human beings towards perfection. In what follows, we have included the original Sanskrit text along with the transliterated text for each Rig Vedic hymn. Svarita, Anudatta and Udatta marks are also shown in the original Sanskrit hymns to facilitate proper pronuciation and recitation. Sandhi dissected versions should be of immense help before an interpretation of various words is undertaken. As opposed to classical Sanskrit, Vedic sanskrit is somewhat less structured and a careful reader will find not infrequent violation of grammatical rules in the texts. Still, the grammar works of Macdonnel [3] and Whitney [5] should be paticularly useful in interpreting vedic texts in a meaningful way.
